

From: Douglas Moore
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 3:08pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Letting Microsoft get away with it's previous behavior with such a timid hand slap is counter to the principles of justice that this great nation is built on. I encourage those involved on the side of the Department of Justice to reconsider this settlement proposal, and either put forward another which includes real consequences for Microsoft, or recommence the case itself to a punishment phase.

Consider this a tally against this settlement proposal.

Thank you